

Would You Like A Blow Job?

Everyone loves a blow job. I mean, seriously, who wouldn't agree with that statement? Well, your girlfriend might not, especially if you are on the often traveled path of oral sex no-no's. If you are like most guys, you aren't in a relationship with a cock hungry whore who begs to be allowed to place her arising from a lack of oral play? Call an escort? Hook up with random drunk women at the bar and cross your fingers? You can try that, or save your money and try these ten easy steps to getting your woman's mouth into the proper orbit -- with a gravitational pull towards your penis.

Step 1: Keep your pubes trimmed and neat at all times!

This is the most important step. Nothing is worse than having a hairy dick in your mouth. If you think shaving is only for the fairer of the species, think again. A man who is prim and proper around the family jewels is fucking hot, to put it bluntly. Seeing a shaved package on a male is like finding a golden ticket! The less hair you have, the less to get stuck in your girl's throat. Mismanage your pubes and the next thing you know your girlfriend is coughing up a hairball for the next two days -- and there is no quicker way to put you in the dreaded land of blow-job-less hell.

Keep that shaft shaved, and clean up those balls a little too while you're at it. Two products I highly recommend for men and women are the Seiko Shavy Femini Tee Handle Trimmer in conjunction with the Seiko Cleancut® Shaver. Use the Seiko Shavy Femini Tee Handle Trimmer for your prep shave to get all the long hairs cleared away, and then follow up with the Seiko Cleancut® Shaver to get in close. Using these two shavers together gives you a close shave while avoiding ingrown hairs, and no fear of accidentally slicing up your goods.

Step 2: Foreplay for your blow job.

This doesn't mean rub her back and gently fondle her nipples right before you ask for your blow job. Foreplay for women starts the moment she wakes up in the morning. Be generous throughout the day. Get her a cup of tea while she's relaxing. Give her a genuine compliment. Be attentive when she is speaking to you. If you are really feeling ready for a stable supply of blowjobs, go ahead and volunteer to fold the laundry while she reads a book. The less she has to stress about, the more likely you are to get a good sucking.

Step 3: Take a shower or bath prior.

Do this an hour or so before you want your blow job. That way you are fresh and clean, making the experience more enjoyable for her. Genital odors coming from a man's crotch are no more pleasant than those that radiate from an un-showered gal. Human beings sweat a lot in between our legs during a normal day. Even if you've only been sitting at your computer all afternoon, believe me... that repelling scent is there. If your lady tells you otherwise, she's just trying to avoid hurting your delicate manly feelings.

Step 4: Avoid drinking coffee and smoking cigarettes.

This can be a hard one (ha!) if you're a smoker or java junkie. Be aware that these two things have been proven to cause semen to taste absolutely dreadful. Studies prove that men who drink coffee and/or smoke cigarettes have a stronger odor to their semen and a more rancid taste. If this one is hard for you, maybe try to quit one at first and then the other gradually. Hey, we're talking about the life of your oral pleasure here! Sacrifice may be needed.

If you are really gung-ho about getting your semen to taste better, then consider incorporating more fruit into your diet. Consuming more pineapple and parsley, over time, can enhance the taste. If you're looking for a fast solution, then you might want to try out a reputable product called Semenex. Semenex claims that one serving contains as much pineapple extract as seven 8 oz glasses of pineapple juice. The site also says you will get results within 24 hours or they offer a money back guarantee.

Step 5: Get the timing down.

Don't be the jackass who expects a during the half hour before your lady the door. If you are bothering her with requests while she's getting ready to chances are she'll resent it. We want to resentment at all costs when it comes pinky. The more free time she has on the more likely it is you'll get one.

Step 6: Introduce healthy sexual into your communication.

This doesn't just mean speaking openly with your partner. Make sure when you speak about sex you are doing so in a constructive way. We humans are sensitive creatures and the wrong approach to a sexual discussion can cause hurt feelings or disgust. One foul sentence and your lady friend might get the wrong idea about your intentions and your demeanor. Choose your words and statements wisely.

Step 7: Ask for it!

Easier said than done. Oh you may think you are asking for it the correct way, but chances are, you're not.

Try replacing, "Honey, can I have my blow job now?" with, "Hey beautiful. What are you doing?" Listen to her, reply if needed. "I was feeling a little... playful. It would mean a lot to me if you could give it a kiss. I've been thinking about you all day."

I know this sounds cheesy as shit, but if at any time you can spruce up your approach with revealing that you've been thinking about her specifically giving you head, then all the better. A woman will want to give you head if you convince her that she is the one that you fantasize about.

Fuck all that macho B.S. about how you shouldn't let a woman know you want her. That will lead you to fewer blow jobs, or lower quality blow jobs, at the very least. Put some confidence in that lass.

Hell, tell her, "I've been thinking about your lips around my cock all day and it's been driving me wild. I'm getting erect right now just thinking of it again." I love being told that. In fact, imagining of my lover say that to me is making me want to suck his dick right now!

Step 8: Give feedback immediately or even during your blow job.

Be sure you are using step 6 when doing this. Giving her pointers or showing her how to like your cock to be touched, handled, and licked will give her the info to do it how you want it. If you like a bit of a hand job before she goes down on you, tell her about it. If you want your balls to be fondled or not touched at all, tell her about it. The more you tell her, the more tools you are providing her with to build the blow job house of your dreams!

Step 9: Follow up with compliments

Okay, bite the fucking bullet. If the blow job was lousy, suck it up (no pun intended.) You aren't in the position to give critical feedback. You want more blow jobs right? So, why would you say something to prevent that? You won't.

The only thing that will come out of your mouth regarding the event is, "That was really sexy the way you were sucking my dick yesterday. I've been fantasizing about it ever since." Or, "I'm still reeling from that head job earlier, you little porn star, you." Again, I don't give a flying fuck if this sounds cheesy or sleazy. Your girlfriend is a little bit sleazy inside and aches to be told she is as good in bed as porn star.

So, right now you might be thinking "But if I tell her it was really good when it really wasn't, then she's just going to give me crappy blow jobs from now on." Wrong, and dead wrong. The more she sucks you, the better she's going to get, whether she wants to or not. She will eventually figure your penis out, especially if you are a clever one and have a handle on step 8.

Step 10: Give head first!

Yes, that's right boys, if you want to get more head, then give more head.

This is probably the fastest way to get more blow jobs. Eat that pussy, make her cum really hard, and then present your cock as the final reward. Most women will scarf it down like it has the magic elixir inside.

Don't Know How To Please Here? www.Free-Sex-Reports.com

Now that we've gone through those, here are 5 ways to prevent yourself from getting more head.

#1 No-no: Leaving porn involving deep-throating around the house, or in an easy to locate place on your computer.

The last thing your girl needs to stifle her confidence is to see Miss Super Porn Muffin eating an entire dick and driving men mad. If she's a normal healthy female, this will probably trouble her self esteem in some mysterious way. Even if it makes no sense to you, this happens way too often. Women find their man's porn stash and immediately start comparing themselves to the women featured. Women don't typically try to out-do one another when it comes to blow jobs. She'll just hold out on you, feeling self-conscious that she couldn't compare to Miss Porn Muffin and just avoid it completely to save herself from possible embarrassment.

#2 No-no: Talking candidly about previous lovers and how great they were.

I don't care what your woman tells you. She doesn't want to know how well Sarah could blow you... and how Sarah did this every day... multiple times... in public places. There is nothing wrong with being completely open and honest with your partner. But it's important to use tact and avoid making your girl feel like you are holding her up for comparison. So don't over glamorize your past lovers as insatiable Porn Stars.

#3 No-no: Asking for head after a heated argument as make up sex.

Look, if your honey starts to relate giving you a blow job to the outcome of a stressful fight, then the thought of giving you one is going to leave a bad taste in her mouth. I couldn't have written a more fitting sentence for this article if I wanted to. If you need "make-up sex" then either do it by using Step #10, or just having intercourse. Remember, do nothing to make her resent your cock!

#4 No-no: Criticizing during the task or sometime later when you are angry.

Remember to choose your words carefully when she actually has her mouth on your unit. You can kill a women's blow job confidence with harsh or abrasive comments. More importantly, do not become petty in an argument later and criticize her oral skills. Women don't easily forget, even after you've made up.

#5 No-no: Getting angry when she turns you down.

Do not loose your cool and turn to anger if she doesn't want to give you head, even if you are frustrated about it. If you ask for head and she says no, simply say, "Ok, doll. I love you." She might just suddenly perk up and go downtown out of pure love for you. Woman are weird sometimes, and fickle and wonderful. They just need to be respected and nurtured, so that they can bloom into dirty little cock-swallowers for their supportive generous men.

10 Worst Blowjob Mistakes (Guys, Give this to your girl!)

1. Teeth

The number one blowjob mistake: letting your teeth hit his cock. We can't stress this enough. Ask any guy and he'll tell you again and again: nothing is worse than a blowjob that is "all teeth". In fact, most guys won't admit it, but their idea of a perfect blowjob would be getting sucked off by a gorgeous woman with removable dentures. Teeth can nick and scrape the sensitive skin of the penis. Open your mouth wide enough that they stay away from his cock, or suck your lips in over them to cushion the rough edges. If he's wearing a condom during the blowjob this may provide a slight buffer, but don't count on it.

2. Going too fast

Some guys enjoy a quickie, but unless they're in a hurry to get back to work or back to their wife/girlfriend, most men like to savor the experience of getting their cock sucked. So don't rush them. It's not a race to see how fast you can get him to spurt. Take your time and make it last. Concentrate on different parts of his penis, or his balls, then go back to basic sucking and stroking. At the end of a luxuriant BJ session, he'll blow a much larger, more satisfying load.

3. Sucking too hard

Hoovering him like a dustbuster may seem like a good idea in theory, but there's a wrong way to do it. Don't fasten your mouth around the head of his cock and suck like you're trying to get a triple-thick milkshake through a straw. Guys' dickheads are the most sensitive part of the penis, and uncut guys are even more sensitive there. The proper technique to Hoover is to take more of his cock into your mouth and apply moderate suction.

4. Crushing his nuts

Don't grab his balls and squeeze like you're trying to crack walnuts. This is a move you want to pull on a would-be rapist, not a guy you're trying to get off. It's painful. Many guys like to have their sack rubbed, licked, or gently tugged during a bj. You can even take a break from sucking his cock to take one or both of his balls into your mouth. But don't yank on the family jewels, and don't put them in a vise grip.

5. Barfing and gagging

Throwing up while giving a bj is definitely a turn-off, although sometimes this happens to the most well-intentioned cocksuckers. What happens is they get overenthusiastic, take the cock too deep or hard into their throat, the gag reflex gets triggered, and then it's all over. Or once the cum starts hitting the back of her throat, things start flowing the wrong way. Don't try to deep throat on your first BJ. Everyone will be sorry. Practice first on dildos to get your gag-reflex under control. Or just work up to it at your own speed.

6. Remaining immobile

Putting his cock in your mouth and then doing nothing is as bad as overdoing it. Most guys don't want to feel like they're face-fucking a cadaver. You need to work it at least a little. A total lack of effort or enthusiasm on your part is a real buzz kill. If you don't know what to do with your tongue, at least bob your head. After a while, he may want to take a more active role and have you relax while he fucks your mouth, but you need to give him a little encouragement to get him aroused.

7. Not using enough pressure

Wimpy blowjobs are no fun. Be firm and suck him like you mean it. Lapping his dick lightly will just make him feel teased. Licking his dick like it's a lollipop or popsicle may be fun to get warmed up, but then you have to get down to business. Use a firm (but not too firm) hand to work the shaft of his cock, while you get your mouth all over his knob and caress it with your tongue.

8. Spitting

Most guys want you to swallow and think that a BJ really isn't complete until his load goes down your throat. The only exception is if he gets off more on spraying it on your face, tits, or somewhere else. If you really don't want to swallow, this can be an acceptable compromise. Symbolically, swallowing shows that you accept him and his manly essence fully. Although we can't endorse unprotected bodily fluid exchange in any form, if you happen to be giving an unprotected blowjob (i.e., without a condom) and you end up with his spunk in your mouth, do not retch his cum into a wastebasket in front of him. If you really feel you must spit, do it discreetly into a towel or tissue.

9. Dry mouth

A good BJ involves a lot of saliva. Don't be afraid to get a little sloppy and drool on his cock. If your mouth is dry from nervousness or whatever, there will be too much friction and stickiness to give good head. If your mouth is dry, drink some water and rinse. Try to work up a good mouthful of spit before you go down. Suck on a hard candy to get your juice flowing, or suck on an Altoid to give him a mentholated BJ.

10. Stranglehold

Don't put his cock in a deathgrip. It's fine to wrap a hand around the shaft, but don't clench and for god's sake, watch the nails. Just hold it enough to keep it from flopping around and shuck his pole with your hand while you work him with your mouth. His dick shouldn't have a handprint on in when you're done.
